

American Society of Botanical Artists

21st Annual Meeting and Conference
Miami, 2015

Finishing your Painting

Lara Call Gastinger

Saturday, October 17
8:30 am – 12:00 pm
Marriott Sapphire B

In this class, you will learn how to bring your painting to completion with very controlled dry brush techniques that will tighten up your work, refine the edges, and increase contrast. Please bring a small original work with you to work on.

Supply List

- Round watercolor paintbrushes (sizes 00, 2, Series 7 is recommended)
- Watercolor paints – bring the palette that you are using for your painting or bring an empty palette to receive some paints
- Water dish
- Small watercolor palette (a flat porcelain plate is recommended)
- Paper towel
- HB pencil
- Battery operated Ott Light (there will not be plugs available)

Bio:

Lara Call Gastinger illustrated 1300 plants in the recently published Flora of Virginia. Lara has been in ASBA exhibits and the RHS show and received a gold medal. Her work was accepted into the Hunt Institute for Botanical Documentation and is represented by Susan Frei Nathan.